FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Office of Administration's Division of Personnel assume the state agencies have been enrolled and actively participating in the program since January 2009; therefore this proposal would not impact the state.

Officials at the Missouri State University and the University of Missouri each assume no fiscal impact to their respective organizations as they already participate in the program.

Officials at the City of Columbia, Cole County, the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, the Francis Howell School District, the Lincoln University, the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, the Linn State Technical College, the Missouri Southern State University, the Missouri Western State University, the Northwest Missouri State University, St. Louis County, the St. Louis County Board of Election Commission, the Tri County Health Department and the University of Central Missouri each assume there is no fiscal impact to their respective organizations from this proposal.

Officials at the Fulton School District assume minimal impact from this proposal.

Oversight assumes that since the E-Verify program is free to use and the penalties are high for not using it that employers will comply with the law and few penalties will be assessed. Therefore, Oversight assumes this proposal would have no fiscal impact.
